INVENTED STORIES— A PERFECT NUISANCE

Berlin Retort To Moscow Allegations

PLOT TO OVERTHROW STALIN

Berlin, January 24.

"Invented stories are a perfect nuisance," declared an official spokesman alluding to the Moscow trial allegations that Leon Trotsky saw Rudolf Hess and that Germans conspired to overthrow Stalin.—Reuter.

Moscow, January 23

All seventeen accused pleaded guilty when another mass trial of high Soviet officials opened before the Military Collegium of the Supreme Court here to-day. The indictment charges the accused with being implicated in a vast plot engineered by Leon Trotsky to destroy the Soviet regime and help Germany, Poland and Japan.

It is alleged that Trotsky carried on negotiations with Herr Rudolf Hess, Chancellor Hitler's deputy, in Berlin, while the other accused acted as agents in Russia. The indictment also charges the accused with espionage, terrorism and attempting to reintroduce capitalism into Russia.

Among the accused are Karl Radek, famous journalist, Sokolnikoff, former Soviet Ambassador to London, Platakoff, former Assistant People's Commissar for Heavy Industries, Serbernikov, former chief of the Chinese Eastern Railway, and Drobnis, state witness, who turned "king's evidence" at the trial of the German engineer Sticking last November.

The accused if found to be guilty are liable to receive death sentences.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

THREE MEN KILLED

Attack On Fishing Junk

An attack on an unnumbered fishing junk off Sam-A in the early morning of Saturday resulted in the death of three men—two of the intruders and a member of the fishing junk—according to the story of Shek Shi, aged 23, a fisherman.

Shek's story was a simple one. He said that on the morning in question he was on board his fishing junk in company with his brother and uncle, and also a female member of the family and four children. He was asleep at about 10 a.m. and was awakened by shouts of "we have come to search for smugglers." On going to the deck he saw that three men had boarded his junk, each one armed with a revolver while two others men were on a sampan, alongside his junk.

Brother Shot
They were told to get below, into the hold, and while there they decided to attack the robbers. His brother, Shek Yat, took hold of six sticks of dynamite and went on deck, intending to throw these at the intruders, but before he could do so he was fired upon and fell on the deck. Meanwhile the intruders took fright and jumped into the water, and Shek Shi goes on to tell that they only saw three men swimming and did not know what became of the other two. Together with his uncle he took a sampan out and went after the three men whom they hit with the oars. He further said that two of these three men are "now lying dead on the deck" of the boat!

It was stated that Shek Yat, who was taken to hospital, succumbed to his injuries—gunshot wounds on the chest and arms—at 7.15 p.m. yesterday.

Meanwhile the subject is still freely discussed by all sections of the community and a "Daily Press" representative reports that in the course of a series of interviews with members of all sections of the community, he was told that it would be a severe blow to the Colony if His Excellency were to leave and that it was hoped that the petitions sent from Hong Kong will have the desired effect.

British Army Needs 20,600 Recruits

The British Regular Army, to complete its establishment, wants no fewer than 20,600 men between now and the end of March next. This is 17,000 fewer than the figure given by the Adjutant-General at the end of October last.

At the present rate of intake it is not possible for the establishment figure to be reached. It is thought, however, that considerable improvement will take place in the first quarter of the New Year, which is usually a good one for recruiting.

Attention is called to the fact that out of 68,000 men who last year offered themselves for enlistment, no fewer than 35,000 were rejected because they did not reach the physical or educational standards.

The Army has also had to enter into competition for recruits with the Royal Air Force during the expansion of that arm.

The proposal to raise four new infantry battalions has had to be postponed in view of the state of recruiting.

"Y" LADIES WIN Hockey Encounter With C.B.A.

A keen hockey battle was witnessed at King's Park yesterday morning when the Y.M.C.A. Ladies, strong contenders for championship title, defeated the C.B.A. Ladies by three goals to two in the Caer Clark Cup competition. This was the last match of the C.B.A. the champions finishing up with four points for eight matches.

The winners' forward line carried more thrust and it was this factor more than anything else that won the day.

The defences of both sides played well up to form, the losers' backs, Miss F. Walker and P. Woolley putting in a tremendous amount of work throughout the match while Miss A. Fowler and Mrs. Burke were stalwarts in the Y's last line of defence.

Miss Fowler, however, was inclined to make the ball rise too often when making a clearance and this resulted in free hits for the opponents.

Miss F. Best, in goal for the C.B.A. saved very well especially in the second half when she staved off a couple of shots that would have resulted in certain goals.

Miss O. Peters, C.B.A. pivot, worked like a Trojan and in the second half had the misfortune to be injured. She received a hit on the right leg and the wound bled quite freely. However, she continued playing in spite of the handicap.

MISS DALZIEL GOOD

The losers' defence faltered somewhat in that they allowed Miss M. Smith, the Y. inside-left, too much rope.

Of the forwards, Miss Olive Dalziel proved a very speedy right wing for the winners while Miss M. Westcott was up to the mark on the left flank. Miss R. Blackmore, Miss P. Stringer and Mrs. Burton played well in the C.B.A. attack.

The winners' intermediate line, capably led by Miss E. Thompson, was steady throughout.

At the interval, the Y. Ladies led 2-0, the goals being scored by Miss Sybil Dalziel and Miss Smith. In the second half Mrs. M. Read added another goal. Both goals for the C.B.A. were scored by Mrs. Burton as a result of splendid first-time hits from passes from the right flank.

The ultimate custody of the trophy now lies between the H.K. Ladies H.C. and the "Y" Ladies who meet in a needle match on Saturday next. The former have one more match to complete their fixtures and that is against St. Andrew's Ladies which will be played on February 6.

BADMINTON

CLUB BEAT THE ARMY

Triangular Tourney Concluded

GOVERNOR ATTENDS RUGGER MATCH

The Club secured their fourth consecutive win in the Triangular Tournament on Saturday when they met the Army at Rugby football and won by a goal and two tries (11 points) to nil.

The game was featured by the splendid marking of the Club three-quarters and halves, as a result of which the Army backs were given few opportunities. A temporary injury to Fus. Preece, who was badly winded just before the interval, saw the Army in a dangerous plight, but they held on gamely and managed to prevent the Club from scoring again before the interval.

Grieve was in fine form as the left-centre three-quarter, scoring a very fine opening try when he took the Army three-quarters completely by surprise.

The Army made one change in their team, Davies being unable to play, and as a result Barry again made an appearance as full-back, and Lieut. MacLagan was brought into the three-quarter line to fill Davies's vacancy.

Floyd Outstanding

Floyd was again in the limelight, in the stand-off-half position, his tackling preventing several likely scores, but he was called upon to do too much in the absence of a sound defence, although Lieut. Rice-Evans came into the line-light and grassed "Tiny" Munro on one or two occasions. Boyling, although he made several game efforts to break through, failed to take his man low and was handed off by Munro time and again.

Butcher was again in splendid fettle, while Chadwick and van Leeuwen were also in fine trim.

After the Army had hemmed the Club in their own half for the first 20 minutes, the Club forwards were seen in a splendid move which ultimately saw a scrum in the Army 25, following which Grieve cleverly sold the dummy and scored between the posts for Watson to add the goal points.

The Club dominated the second half exchanges and further tries came from Chadwick and Munro, both of which were unconverted by Watson.

Among the interested spectators were His Excellency the Governor and Lady Caldecott, His Excellency the G.O.C., Major-General A. W. Bartholomew, attended by his A.D.C. Lieut. P. J. Howorth, Col. H. C. Harrison and Mr. V. M. Grayburn.

Club "A" Win

In the "A" fifteen match which preceded the big match, the Club beat H.M.S. Berwick by two tries (6 points) to a try (3 points) in a very scrappy encounter in which only a very few shone. A. F. Read and L. Forbes scored for the Club, while Nicholls replied for the Berwick. The Club led at the interval by six clear points.

Y.M.C.A.), T. C. Lee and P. K. Hui, K. S. Liew and K. L. Yung, C. H. Soon and P. E. Tan (University), S. A. Gray and F. A. Broadbridge, H. Kew and E. F. Fincher (St. Andrew's), F. H. Kwok and S. W. Dr. Barnes's Address

STUDENT CHRISTIAN
CONFERENCE

The Bishop of Birmingham, who, with the Lord Mayor, the Vice-Chancellor of the University, and a representative of the Free Churches, welcomed to Birmingham recently an international conference organised by the Student Christian Movement, said the title of the conference was the provocative sentence, "God speaks to this generation."

While they were agreed as to the fact, were they agreed as to the message? God had given to this generation knowledge that was power. In the fullness of time man had suddenly reached the understanding that had led him to a marvellous control over nature. No longer need human civilisation be painfully built upon human drudgery. The era of the machine had come. New knowledge, amazing power—such were God's gifts to this generation, and surely in God's sight we were mis-using them shamefully.

THREE BAD EXAMPLES

Take three examples. In the first place, recent medical knowledge had enabled us drastically to reduce infantile mortality and at the same time to control conception, and as a result the best stocks of the foremost races of mankind were dying out. The worst reproduced themselves to discredit the future.

As a second example, our new knowledge of history and of literary criticism gave us a wholly new insight into the sacred books of our own and of other religions, and as a result men either repudiated Christianity or denounced Modernism. A reasonable faith was renounced for the alternatives of scepticism or superstition.

Thirdly, in every well-organised State, the machine had set free a considerable percentage of men and women for public services. Were these used for invention and discovery, to eliminate disease, to rebuild cities, to bring in the Golden Age? Relatively few were thus employed, but armies were growing ever more powerful and the increase of armaments was without end. Wars of jealousy, greed, suspicion, and fear would ruin us all.

GOD'S MESSAGE

As he heard the message, God said to this generation: "Use new knowledge to end old and useless conventions, to destroy bad traditions. Eliminate the unfit among you. So order society that the children of the future come plentifully from good stocks. Seek truth. No religious revival can possibly be wholesome or ultimately permanent unless it is free from superstition. Strive for peace. Take risks for peace. Trust in righteousness rather than in armaments. The wealth of the world is sufficient for all. There need be no jealousy if all share in it alike."

CONFERENCE

Rome, Jan. 23.

A conference between the Turkish Foreign Minister Rushdi Aras and Count Ciano will take place in North Italy within 3 or 4 days, according to the "Giornale d'Italia." It is pointed out in political circles that the Dardanelles question is not the only matter to discuss, but that the Turkish-Italian relations in general are to be clarified, these having been disturbed frequently during the past ten years through foreign propaganda. The conviction is expressed that owing to the cooling off of Turkish-French relations as well as with the League of Nations through the Alexandrette question, a basis for co-operation will not be difficult to find. An agreement of the pattern as with England regarding the Mediterranean is mentioned, except that in such a case, Italy would pledge herself to accept the status quo in the entire Mediterranean. In this case she would doubtless become a signatory to the Dardanelles agreement, only that the question of Soviet influence in the Mediterranean would remain to be settled.

SAVING LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Important All-Party
Declaration'MILITARY ACTION IF NECESSARY'

A declaration that war can be averted and peace permanently maintained under the League Covenant, with the help, if necessary, of military action, was made recently by a number of prominent personalities of all parties, whose names give considerable importance to the manifesto.

There are four groups of signatories—

Conservative—Mr. Winston Churchill, the Earl of Lytton, and the Duchess of Atholl.

Labour—Mr. C. R. Attlee, Dr. Hugh Dalton, and Mr. P. J. Noel-Baker.

Liberal—Mr. Lloyd George, Sir Archibald Sinclair, and Mrs. Corbett-Ashby.

Others—The Archbishop of Canterbury, Viscount Cecil, and Professor Gilbert Murray.

Later it is understood, the same appeal will be issued in various European countries, signed by leaders of public opinion.

'WAR CAN BE AVERTED'

The declaration is as follows:—In every country there is talk of war, and in some countries attacks have openly been made upon the League of Nations and the principle of collective security.

We, the undersigned, declare that war can be averted and a stable peace permanently maintained if the nations which are members of the League will now make plain their determination to fulfil their obligations under the Covenant and to take any measures required for the prevention or repression of aggression, including, if necessary, military action. Only so will the peaceful settlement of international disputes become possible.

We affirm that if the members of the League are united in this policy, their joint strength will be so overwhelming that no intending aggressor will venture to refuse the settlement of disputes or other outstanding questions by peaceful means.

We accordingly urge that in any reform of the Covenant which may be undertaken nothing shall be done to weaken its provisions in this respect, but that, on the contrary, the system of the League shall be strengthened for the prevention of war.

We also urge the importance of establishing within the framework of the League of Nations effective machinery for remedying by peaceful means international conditions which might lead to war.

GAS INSTEAD OF SHOOTING

Kovno, Jan. 23.

The death sentence in Lithuania will in future no longer be carried out by shooting, but by the application of poison gas, according to a decision of the Lithuanian Cabinet on Friday. The condemned person will be confined in a hermetically sealed cell especially to be constructed. This law comes into force immediately and will be applied in the case of two murderers already condemned and now awaiting the execution.—Transocean News Service.

THE MILWAUKEE ROAD

Conquer that Weakness!
You can—with SANATOGEN

"There is abundant evidence of the value of Sanatogen as a restorative and food, and more particularly in cases of general debility".

—writes "The Lancet."

"A Great Strengthening", wrote the Hon. Sir F. A. Robertson, Judge of the Chief Court, Lahore, about Sanatogen.

Remember that these letters—and thousands similar—were written by people who, before the use of Sanatogen, were just as sceptical as you may be of its tonic effects. But they decided to try Sanatogen and they got back their health and vigour.

"Sanatogen"—as a well-known London physician puts it—"goes straight to the core of well-being, namely, the cells—and builds these up into a permanent and solid fabric of health."

Sanatogen will build up your Health lastingly. Over 25,000 physicians support this claim with their written commendation.

"Sanatogen gives a distinct restorative effect", writes Sir Luke White.

"My nurses and myself were very much struck with my rapid improvement with Sanatogen", writes the wife of a well-known doctor, Mrs. C. A. M. Phillips.

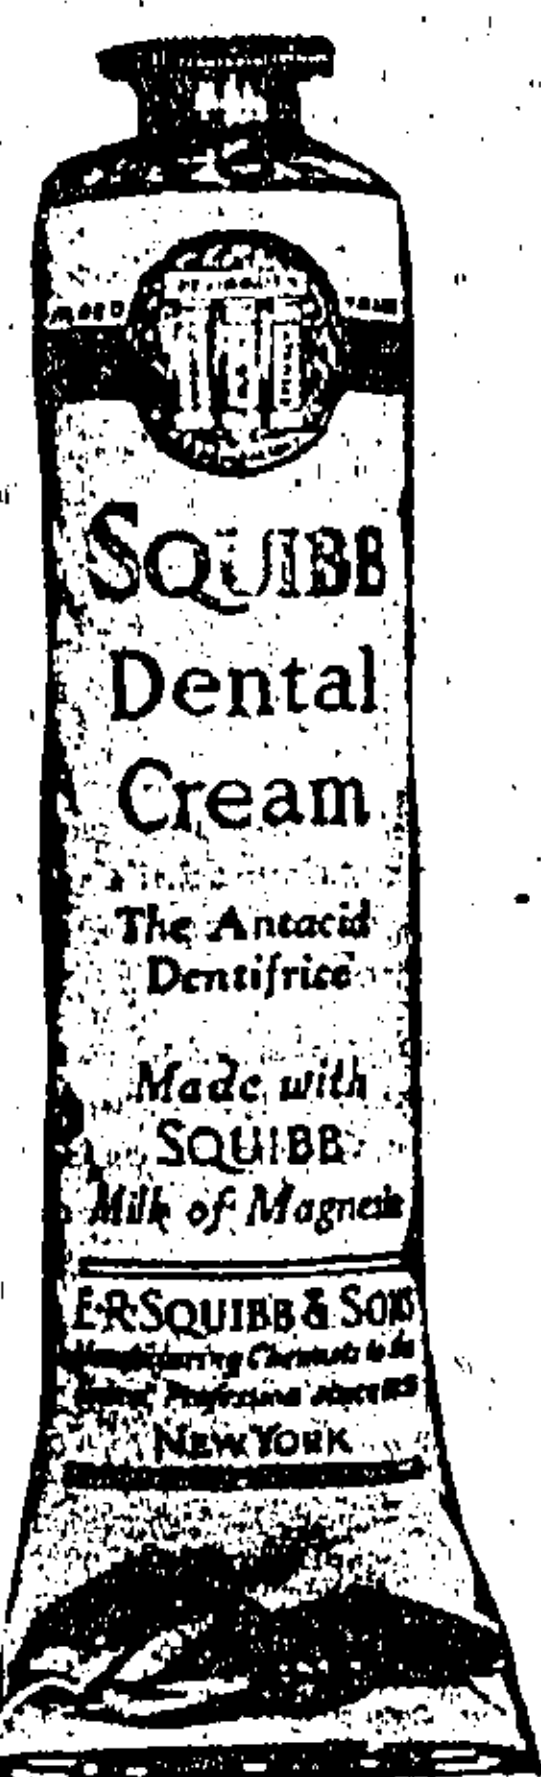

"A Wonder-worker" are the words in which Mr. Coulson Kernahan, the well-known author, describes Sanatogen.

SANATOGEN will always do you good and cannot possibly do harm.

FRANCE AND TURKEY

Sanjak Question Deliberations

Paris, Jan. 23.

The question of the Sanjak Alexandrette is still continuing to occupy prominent place in the afternoon papers here, and the progress of the deliberations between Foreign Minister Delbos and Rushdi Aras is followed with no little anxiety. The press emphasises the fact that great caution must be exercised on both sides, if serious developments are to be avoided. The situation is further complicated by the report from Ankara that the Turkish Cabinet met twice on Thursday, the last session continuing till Friday morning. The Cabinet is in constant touch with Kemal Ataturk and Rushdi Aras. Kemal Ataturk is at-present in Istanbul. The report in the "Liberte" stating that all Turkish artillery officers between the ages of 37 and 40 have been called from the reserve to active service has occasioned considerable excitement, just as the measure itself gave rise to a sensation in Turkey. Doubt is expressed as to whether the French attempt to gain time is to be successful, since Turkey is adamant in its attitude and opposed to any postponement.

NEW COMPLICATIONS

Jerusalem, Jan. 23.

New complications have arisen in the Sanjak Alexandrette question by the fact that the French subsidiary company of the British-Iraq Petroleum Company, which had obtained a boring concession in the Sanjak, reports that preliminary borings yielded very satisfactory results, and that it is hoped that rich oil fields will be opened there. As the French company has already obtained the concession, it has stolen a march on the Turks, who had reckoned to find oil in the Sanjak. As the French company is in reality British owned, England now becomes directly interested in the future of the Sanjak, which explains why the British Press has lately shown the disposition to support the Syrian point of view.

LEAGUE COUNCIL SESSION

Geneva, Jan. 23.

At the afternoon session of the League of Nations Council on Friday, which dealt with various committee reports, the only outstanding figures were the Soviet Foreign Commissary, Litvinoff, and the French Foreign Minister Delbos. Mr. Eden left the meeting
after a few minutes and Rushdi Aras and Col. Beck did not appear.
Gortford negotiations also seemed to be at a standstill, largely because neither side could make any progress in the Alexandrette question. Mr. Eden has conferred with Col. Beck on the Danzig question on Friday morning, and will confer with the Danzig Separate President, Greiser in the afternoon. The Committee of Three, composed of England, France and Sweden, to consider the Danzig position, has met preceding the full Council session and will confer again on Saturday. It is expected that the Danzig question will come before the Council on Monday or Tuesday.

SOVIET UNION ARRESTS

Moscow, Jan. 23.

Confirmation that one of the leading men in the Soviet Union has been arrested, namely, Buk-harin, formerly editor in chief of the official organ "Izvestia," was confirmed by an official communication issued here. That Bukharin had fallen from favour was significantly indicated a short time ago, when his name as editor in chief suddenly disappeared from the title page of the "Izvestia." It is now definitely stated that the three great political trials will take place in the near future, one against the celebrated Journalist Radek and his colleagues, whereby the action will be aimed at the opposition within the Communist party, the second, where a number of high state officials will be charged with being in sympathy with Trotsky, and the third, where Bukharin will be the chief accused; this third trial, exciting even more sensation than the two others, since Bukharin belonged to the intimate circle of Lenin up to the very time of Lenin's death.

"TO MARY WITH LOVE"

A story that strikes deep and sure at love to-day, showing at the Queen's Theatre to-day, in the Twentieth Century-Fox picture, a romance, "To Mary With Love."

Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy, together for the third time cinematically, are co-starred and their performances opposite each other are said to surpass the heights they reached in "Broadway Bill" and "Penthouse."

Ian Hunter, as Myrna's childhood sweetheart who still loves her, and Claire Trevor, as the good-time girl who almost disrupts the romance, are featured in the cast which also includes Jean Dixon.

A love-letter romance, "To Mary With Love," opens with the marriage of Baxter and Miss Loy. Best man is Ian Hunter who hides his regret with a grin, at seeing Myrna's happiness in Baxter's arms. Making love lightly, yet loving deeply, they move through their honeymoon and then return to New York where Baxter plunges into the stock market, intent on accumulating a fortune.

So occupied is he that Myrna takes a summer trip to Maine alone. Returning home, earlier than expected, she finds that Baxter hasn't been so lonesome as supposed, but, instead, has been entertaining Claire Trevor.

This is the first flaw in their happiness and, although they patch it up, the scars still linger. Baxter returns to his manipulations in finance and, as the market rises, becomes wealthy. Money doesn't bring happiness to the pair, however, for Myrna finds too much time on her hands and becomes intimate with a group of parasites and questionable friends.

Just as it appears that their marriage must break up, the market crashes and Myrna finds that her husband needs her more than ever.

From their penthouse they go to live in a shabby suburban bungalow. Baxter is unable to comprehend what has happened and Myrna is unable to convince him that he should get a job—any kind of a job.

Hiding their hurts and holding back their tears, Myrna and Baxter rise gallantly and splendidly from their misfortune and find a new and greater love to reward them. Darryl F. Zanuck, chairman of the Twentieth Century-Fox studios, selected John Cromwell to direct "To Mary With Love" and Kenneth Macgowan, associate producer.

the city. Other members of the band include Paul Harvey, Robert Strange, Joseph Sawyer, Eddie Acuff and Kenneth Harlan.

Edmund Gwenn, famous English actor who brings Karloff back to life, Marguerite Churchill and Warren Hull, assistants of the scientist, supply the love interest.

Henry O'Neill has the part of the District Attorney, Joseph King that of the Judge shot down in cold blood by the gangsters, Ruth Robinson the role of his wife and Addison that of the prison warden.

"PEPPER"

Irvin S. Cobb and Slim Summerville literally went into training for their respective roles in "Pepper." Jane Withers' new Twentieth Century-Fox hit, which is showing to-day at the Alhambra Theatre.

The Paducah Humorist and the elongated comedian found that the rigors of keeping up with the mischievous Withers miss required that they be in the pink of condition.

Jane plays a shin-kicking, tomato-throwing, window-busting pint-sized Robin Hood of lower New York in "Pepper," and both Cobb and Summerville go through a series of strenuous and energetic adventures with Jane.

Therefore, to properly at themselves for their parts, Cobb and Summerville decided to take a regular course of "setting-up" exercises during the production of the film.

One of the scenes of the film calls for Jane to slide down a thirty-foot bannister. Jane tried the slide first, but complained that the bannister wasn't smooth enough.

The property man waxed the railing to a glass-like smoothness and then Jane went him one better and added a liberal coat of talcum powder to further facilitate the slide.

Result: when Jane slid down the bannister it was like a roller-coaster. Instead of alighting at the bottom of the slide, Jane catapulted into space—and smack into Irvin S. Cobb, standing on the sidelines.

The camera had 'caught' Jane perfectly but she wanted to try the thrilling slide again. Cobb, however, could not be persuaded under any circumstances to again act as buffer so Jane had to forego any added thrills.

Hollywood's adaptation of the P. G. Wodehouse comedy, "Piccadilly Jim," brought an upheaval of hilarious laughter to the Majestic Theatre last night.

An exceptional all-star cast added to the merits of the story itself and the direction by Robert Z. Leonard, who directed "The Great Ziegfeld," was superb. Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has taken Wodehouse at his face value and it proves to be a gold mine of mirth. They give his original story visible and audible life, but otherwise it is unchanged.

Robert Montgomery is excellent in the title role. Madge Evans is a lovely lady opposite him and Frank Morgan, also of "The Great Ziegfeld," appears as his father, an actor in love with a woman of high social station in London. Billie Burke, widow of Florenz Ziegfeld, makes her first screen appearance under her new M-G-M contract and plays a truly delightful role. Eric Blore and others in the cast keep up the pace.

INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION

Plans For 1937 Paris Display

The object of the International Exhibition in 1937 in Paris is to present "art and technique of the present day." The interest in this exhibition is so lively, that it may well be assumed to become one of the most important of its kind.

Germany, at the invitation of France, will be very well represented. A "palace," called "Deutsches Haus," will be built. The plans for this house provide for a total of 166 metres and a breadth of 20 metres. The visitor will enter through an enormous tower into a Hall of Honour, and from there into the main exhibition hall, 142 metres long and 20 metres high. On the roof will be a restaurant, commanding a splendid view of Paris and the exhibition grounds. The architect Speer, responsible for the Reichs Party Grounds in Nuremberg, has designed this "Deutsches Haus."

Above the Hall of Honour the offices of the managers and their staff will be situated, a well-known Bremen architect, Brinckmann, having been entrusted with the interior decoration.

Exhibitors for German products will be chosen by the Reichs Commissioner for the International Exhibition in Paris, 1937, who will be responsible for German exhibits being as representative as possible. A permit from the Commissioner will thus be necessary for exhibitors from Germany, whether represented in the German House or in other Pavilions.

"LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY"

Freddie Bartholomew goes on record as the first actor to play "Little Lord Fauntleroy" without benefit of the traditional long golden curls and plush suit in the Selznick International film version of the world-famous Frances Hodgson Burnett story, which co-stars the popular child star with Dolores Costello Barrymore.

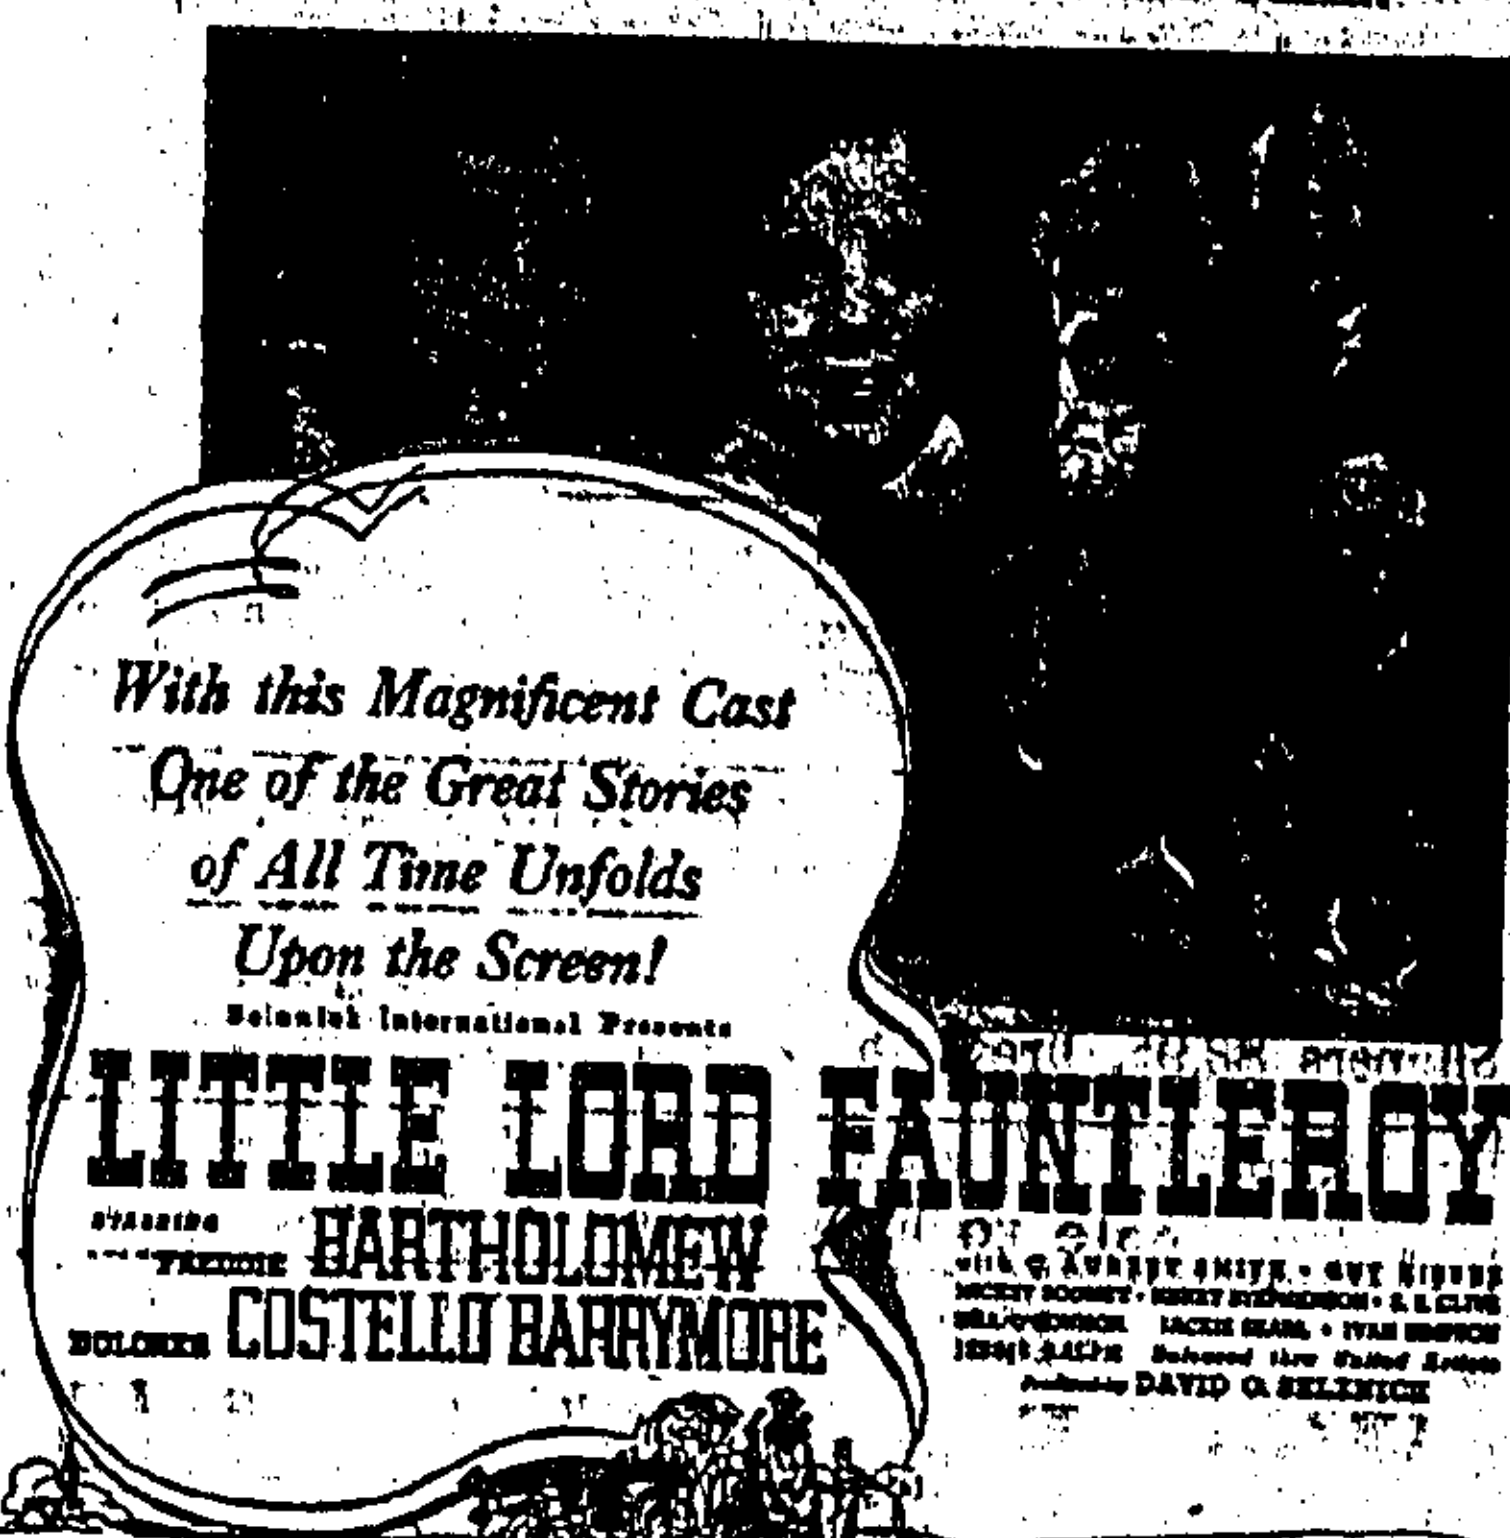

It is showing to-day at the King's Theatre.

In all other respects, however, Hugh Walpole, who adapted "Little Lord Fauntleroy" to the screen, has faithfully adhered to the universally beloved story of the little American boy who became a nobleman, went to England to live in a castle with the Earl of Dorincourt and transformed that gentleman from a surly old dear to a lovable old grandfather.

Dolores Costello Barrymore makes her return to the screen in the role of the little fellow's beautiful and adored young mother. C. Aubrey Smith is seen as the Earl. Guy Kibbee and Mickey Rooney play Fauntleroy's American friends, Mr. Hobbs and Dick, the bootblack. Others in the cast are Henry Stephenson, Jackie Beall, E. E. Olive, Una O'Connor, Ivan Simpson and Jessie Ralph. John Cromwell directed the film, which is released through United Artists.

ARMED ROBBERY SEQUEL

Man Caught In His Own Hut

Three days' remand was granted on Detective Inspector Cunningham's request when Lo Yiu-ping was brought before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen on a charge of armed robbery committed about 7 p.m. on January 20.

According to the police, it is believed that defendant was the leader of the gang of four who, armed with revolvers, robbed the Chung Wo gold-smith shop of 243 Shanghai Street of gold ornaments amounting to about $5,000, and also $500 in cash.

Defendant was arrested a little over 48 hours after the crime. The facts were that at an early hour, between 3 and 4 a.m. on January 22, acting on information received, Detective Inspector Elton and Det-Sgt. Cunningham, and a company of Chinese detectives, went to Kowloon City, and surrounded the hut where Lo was peacefully asleep. On hearing sounds of disturbance, defendant, armed with a kitchen knife, and carrying his share of the spoils, tried to force his way out, but was caught by the police.

STEALING FROM OWN SISTER

Chinese Woman
Bound Over

Au Mui-wah, 33, spinster, sister of Au Tsiu-wah (complainant) was bound over in the sum of $100 for a year when she appeared before Mr. K. Keen at the Central Magistracy on Saturday for the larceny of a jewellery box containing $228 in Hong Kong money, $14.40 in Chinese money, a gold locket, a gold buckle, a gold finger ring, two gold ear-rings and many other small articles from 30, Cochrane Street, on January 21.

Sergeant Cashman, who prosecuted, stated that the defendant lived with the complainant and that a report was made to the Police that a jewellery box was missing from the house. When the Police arrived at the residence and questioned the household, it was learned that nobody knew anything of it. A search was made and the case was found hidden in the kitchen. Later it was learned that Au Mui Wah took the articles.

The complainant told the court that she did not wish to press the case.

The defendant was accordingly bound over for a year.

THREE ALIENS FINED

Registration Offences

Appearing before Mr. J. A. Fraser at the Central Magistracy on Saturday morning, three Japanese, Kinju Kato, Shuhiro Hasegawa and Shoji Kato answered summonses for not reporting their departure from and, eventually, their return to Hong Kong.

Det-Sgt. Cochrane who prosecuted stated that Kinju Kato reported his departure when he left for Japan but failed to report when he returned.

His Worship said: "You did not come to the registration office when you were called?—I thought I could take my time about it. A fine of $15 was imposed on the defendant."

Shuhiro Hasegawa was fined $10 for not reporting his return from Canton on January 9. Det-Sgt. Cochrane stated that the defendant had reported his departure but failed to report his return.

Defendant: "I have quite forgotten to report when I arrived in Hong Kong."

The last defendant, Shoji Kato was fined $15 also, for failing to report on both occasions, when he left for Formosa and on his return to Hong Kong. Det-Sgt. Cochrane said that the defendant failed to report on January 5 and when he returned on 19, he failed to register his name.

Defendant: "I thought my office was going to report for me."

PARTIALITY FOR BIRDS

Chinese Steals Goose
And Duck!

Chan Khak, 42, unemployed of No. 107, First Street, ground floor, was brought before Mr. J. A. Fraser at the Central Magistracy on Saturday morning for the theft of a goose, valued at $3 and a duck, valued at $1, on Friday.

Sergeant Clarke who prosecuted said that the defendant was seen taking the goose and the duck and walked away with them.

Defendant, when questioned stated that he took them both at the same time and not at different times as the boy told the police.

His Worship imposed three weeks' hard labour on the defendant.

TAKING COAT FROM CAR

European Lady As Complainant

Lui Chung Man, 31, unemployed was bound over in the sum of $100 for a year when he was brought before Mr. K. Keen at the Central Magistracy on Saturday morning for the theft of a lady's overcoat at the entrance of Asia Company on Friday.

Sub-Inspector Baker who prosecuted stated that Mrs. C. M. Walton drove up to the Asia company on Friday and left her overcoat in the car. She returned to her car after a few minutes and found her coat missing. Looking ahead of her, she noticed a man carrying her overcoat and she called out. A man seeing a Chinese with a European lady's overcoat, got suspicious and arrested the defendant.

Mrs. Walton told the Court that she did not wish to press the case and the defendant was accordingly bound over for a year.

POSSESSION OF FORGED NOTES

Two Chinese In Court

Two men, Pok Po Hong, 22, unemployed and Wong Nga, 32, unemployed were remanded to Tuesday, when they were brought before J. A. Fraser at the Central Magistracy on the charge of possession of forged bank notes.

The first defendant was charged for the possession of two $5 forged notes at Lockhart Road on Friday, while the second defendant had in his possession ten $5 forged bank notes at the same street on the same day.

Sergeant Estall who prosecuted asked for the remand which was granted.

BAG-SNATCHER GETS "CANE"

Foreign Woman
Victimised

Sentences of four months' imprisonment and twelve strokes of the cane were imposed on a hand-bag snatcher, Tang Lam, a 19-year-old unemployed, by Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday.

Mrs. Hyndman, of 3, Hau Wong Street, who was the victim of the incident, told the Court that while she was walking in Hoi-mun-tin Street about 8:15 on Jan. 21, defendant bumped into her from behind, and on turning round she saw him running off with her handbag which contained $20 in cash. She at once gave chase, and shouted for help in English and Chinese.

Following him into Waterloo Road, she saw a Chinese on a bicycle, circling round defendant, and she suspected that defendant had handed the bag to him because when defendant was caught by an Indian constable the bag was not in his possession.

Defendant pleaded not guilty to the charge and said that he was a passer-by.

TRADE MARKS CASE

Written Judgment
Delivered

Judgment was given by Mr. E. Himsforth at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday in the forged trade mark in which the Kam Pui Drug Co. was summoned by the China Dispensary.

His Worship said in part:—
In this action the defendants are charged with three offences: selling goods to which a forged trade mark has been applied; having in their possession for sale certain goods to which a forged trade mark was applied; and exposing for sale certain goods, to wit thirteen bottles of Skin Lotion to which a forged trade mark was applied.

I will deal with the third charge first. Due probably to an oversight on the part of the prosecution there was never any evidence produced to show that thirteen bottles mentioned in that charge were ever exposed for sale. The first witness, who executed the warrant, did in fact seize the thirteen bottles mentioned in the charge but he was not called upon to give evidence as to whether they were or were not exposed for sale and in the absence of such evidence I do not think this charge can proceed further.

After dealing with the first two charges, in detail, his Worship said that he held that the defendant had failed to substantiate a defence and that he must register a conviction on the first two charges.

In conclusion, I think I should add that while I have found that the defendant has been proved guilty of an offence within this ordinance, I do not think there was any deliberate or wilful intention to commit the offences as proved and the moral guilt of the defendant is very small.

The defendant firm was fined $20 on each of the two counts.

GOLD SCAPED FROM TOMBSTONES

In the early hours of Thursday morning last, the Ho Tung Cemetery at Pokfulam was visited by two men, Li Chung, 32, unemployed and Tam Hoi, 30, unemployed, and as a result they were charged before Mr. J. A. Fraser at the Central Magistracy on Saturday morning with the larceny of gold from a gravestone.

Crown Sergeant W. L. Clarke prosecuting, stated that the defendants were seen scraping off gold from a gravestone. He added that Lady Ho Tung viewed the larceny very seriously.

His Worship accordingly imposed a sentence of three months' hard labour on the first defendant and two months' hard labour on the second defendant.

BANISHEE'S MISDEED

Wong Shu, 37, unemployed, was charged with the larceny of 20 pieces of cloths and a breach of deportation order before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday.

Sgt. M. Rogers, who prosecuted, said that about 8.30 a.m. on January 22 he saw defendant walking in the street with a bundle under his arm. Upon being questioned he told the police officer that the bundle contained bedding, but he quickly ran away when he was ordered to submit it for inspection. Sgt. Rogers ran after him and caught defendant at Fuk Wing Street. Defendant later admitted that he had stolen them from a house in Fuk Wing Street.

Defendant was sentenced to three months' imprisonment for the first offence and nine months for the breach of deportation order.

WEDDINGS

BRITTO-REMEDIOS

A pretty wedding was solemnised at the Rosary Church on Saturday morning, uniting two well-known local Portuguese families, when Miss Alda Lourdes Britto, the second daughter of Mrs. L. S. Britto and the late Mr. J. M. Britto, became the bride of Mr. Hugo Marcus Remedios, the third son of Mr. Jose C. Remedios and the late Mrs. A. Remedios, the Reverend Fr. Rossi officiating.

The bride, who was charmingly dressed in a gown of white chiffon velvet with silver trimming and accessories to match, also carried a bouquet of roses and baby's breath.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Elsie Britto and cune Remedios, sisters of the bride and bridegroom. They wore dresses of pale green, angel's skin and carried posies of tea roses.

The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. F. M. Britto, while the bridegroom was attended by two groomsmen, Messrs. A. G. Botelho and L. G. Pina.

A reception was held following the ceremony, at the Little Flower Club, 246 Nathan Road, where the newly-married pair were toasted by their many friends.

The honeymoon is being spent in Canton and Macao.

NEILL-DEITZ

Norman Frederick Deitz, the well-known local jockey, was married to Miss Lidia Maria Neill before the Registrar of Marriages, Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith, at the Supreme Court on Saturday.

Witnesses to the ceremony were Messrs. William G. Poy, and A. D. Coppin.

CHINESE

The best men were Messrs. Chung Tse-ho and Tsang Pak-ho, while the bridesmaids were the Misses Mui Lai-wan and Chau Yuet-may. The bride was given away by Mr. Leung Ping-hin.

A reception was later held at the Tai Koon Restaurant. The honeymoon will be spent at Hoi How where the bridegroom is returning to resume his service at the Chinese Maritime Customs Wireless Station.

ALLEGED ROBBERY

Cheung Yan, 24, unemployed was brought before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen on Saturday, charged with alleged robbery committed on January 22. Three days' remand was granted on Det.-Sgt. Cunningham's request.

RICARDO
CORTEZ'S
"DOUBLE"
AMERICAN VISITOR'S
EXPERIENCE

Staying at the Cecil Hotel is an American gentleman who bears such a striking resemblance to the famous Hollywood film star, Ricardo Cortez, that he has been recognised as such at the Railway Hotel, in Tokyo, in Shanghai and again on the s.s. Ranpura, on which he travelled down to Hong Kong from the North.

Mr. M. Murry Left, the gentleman in question, is travelling round the world on a pleasure cruise, having left California about four months ago.

He was first recognised in Tokyo where, totally unaware of the fact, a staff photographer of a big Japanese daily took his picture and published it, with the result that he was persistently followed everywhere by ardent admirers of Ricardo Cortez.

BOTHERED BY ATTENTION

He was also recognised in Shanghai, but he managed to keep away from all pressmen there. On the s.s. Ranpura someone again thought that he was Ricardo Cortez travelling incognito and he was much bothered by the attention paid him.

"I have not doubled for Mr. Cortez, although strangely enough I have received an invitation to go to India in that capacity," Mr. Left told pressmen when they questioned him on this point.

THE CATHEDRAL
ORGANReconstruction Nears
Completion

The reconstruction of the Cathedral organ is fast nearing completion, and it is hoped that it will be dedicated by the Bishop about the middle of next month, in which case the organ will be heard at the "Elijah" which the Hong Kong Singers are giving on Feb. 23.

To date, the sum of $2,500 has been paid to Mr. Blackett, the builder, and $600 odd remain on hand. As this amount is barely sufficient, further donations will be gladly received by the Cathedral Authorities.

The three organs, swell, great and choir have all been perfected and the console is being detached and placed in a specially constructed loft over the choir vestry, connected to the organ proper by an electric cable concealed behind one of the beams in the chancel.

The organist, Mr. Lindsay A. Laford, F.R.C.O., A.R.C.M., L.R.A.M., is preparing a special programme for the Dedication Service and no music lover should miss this. He has been working against many odds whilst the organ has been well nigh unplayable, but Hong Kong will soon have the joy of hearing the Cathedral Choir at its best.

Details of the Dedication Service will be announced later.

COUNTERFEIT COINS

Wong Hing, 34, married woman, was charged, at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday, with the possession of 40 pieces of counterfeit ten-cent coins and with uttering 30 pieces of forged ten-cent coins on January 22.

The prosecuting officer asked his Worship for 48 hours remand which was granted.

WELL DESERVED
PROMOTIONMr. A.W. Grimmitt
Now S.R.O.

Mr. A. W. Grimmitt was the recipient of the congratulations of his many friends over the weekend when it was learned that he had been appointed to the post of Senior Revenue Officer.

Mr. George Watt, who retired from the service some years ago and who recently paid a visit to Hong Kong, was the last holder of that post. On his departure, no appointment was made, presumably on the ground of economy. It is believed that the special duties now being performed by Mr. Grimmitt has led to his well deserved promotion. His special knowledge of local conditions, has been an advantage to the authorities in the numerous raids carried out every day.

His conduct of cases for the Crown has won approbation not only from the Bench but also from members of the legal profession who have been his opponents from time to time. In the "heavier" cases he has been a tower of strength to the Crown Solicitor's Department.

LAID TO REST

Mr. B.M.C. da Cunha

There was a very large gathering of friends of the deceased present while floral tributes were sent by Bertha and David, Annie and Polly, Nina and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rosario, Orsina and Mrs. Perpetua, Mrs. M. T. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Marques, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gibson, Mrs. F. Xavier and family, Mr. D. Midwinter, Mrs. B. Silva, Mr. and Mrs. A. Leung Ming of the Yau Soon firm of Shanghai was summoned at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday by Mr. Lye Joon Beng, for selling tins of Nugget boot polish bearing a false trade mark.

Mr. G. S. Ford, for the prosecution, said that the polish itself was genuine but the tins were forged. He further stated that Mr. Lye did not wish to press the case any further but would like to stop defendant from selling the false polish.

Defendant was bound over in a sum of $50 for one year.

MACLEANS OF ARDGOUR

RIVAL CLAIMS FOR CHIEFTAINSHIP

Appeal At Edinburgh

The claim of Miss Catriona Louise Maclean of Ardgour to be Chieftainess of the house, branch, or family of Maclean of Ardgour came before the Second Division of the Court of Session, Edinburgh, on January 5, on the question of jurisdiction.

The Bench consisted of the Lord Justice-Clerk (Lord Atchison), Lord Mackay, and Lord Wark.

The matter arose on an appeal by Lieutenant-Commander Henry Hugh Maclean, R.N.R. (retired), of Windhover, Bursledon, Hampshire, against a decision by the Lord Lyon King of Arms (Sir Francis Grant).

Miss Maclean and Lieutenant-Commander Maclean are cousins, both being descended from Colonel Alexander Maclean, 13th of Ardgour, who died in 1855. The dispute as to who is Chieftain of Ardgour arose on the death in 1930 of Miss Maclean's father, Lieutenant-Colonel Alexander John Hew Maclean of Ardgour.

Miss Maclean, who is 17 years of age, has petitioned for the widowed and principal armorial bearings matriculated in 1909 by her father, and she also asks for recognition as the lineal heir and representative, and as such head or Chieftainess of the house, branch, or family of Maclean of Ardgour.

Lieutenant-Commander Maclean maintains that the chieftainship passes, at all events in the first place, to heirs male in preference to the heir of line.

GOERING GETS BACK TO ROME

Rome, Jan. 23. General Goering returned from Naples and was received by Signor Mussolini at Palazzo Venezia this morning where they had a long conversation. Reuter's Bulletin Service.

organisations men are coming forward in sufficient numbers.

It is impossible to avoid the conclusion that there must be a difference between the ways in which the two types of service are regarded by men who are likely to enter them, and the mind may well go back to Mr. Lets-Smith's assertion during the December debate in the House that there are "few professions in which class distinctions and class snobbery have so long survived as in the British army."

The serving soldier is still tied round and restricted by many details of discipline that really date from the days when service in the ranks was apt to be regarded, like Dr. Johnson's "patriotism," as "the last refuge of a scoundrel."

When the regimental deductions have been made his pay is not good, and the provisions for his return to civil life are open to considerable improvement.

What sort of steps will be taken to remedy those defects we shall be able to see and discuss when the existing committee at last produces its obviously important findings.

The Daily Press

HONG KONG, JANUARY 25, 1937.

Why Recruiting Is Lagging

The sooner the real reasons why recruiting is lagging in regard to the British Army is faced the better. For far too long has this most important matter been diplomatically smothered by many blankets of words. Whatever else these following comments may lead you to believe, there is one thing that is not suggested, namely, that there is dissatisfaction in any mutinous sense amongst the troops either in Hong Kong or elsewhere. There does, however, definitely exist what may properly be termed a "healthy discontent."

It is an unfortunate fact, but it is apparently only on the parade ground and under the orders of a non-commissioned officer that the habit of "jumping to it" is usually practised in the British army; the military machine moves with much more monumental deliberation when it is a question of people higher up arriving at a decision on policy.

In November last Lord Stanhope told the House of Lords that the voluntary system of recruiting was "in grave danger," but any impression that the Government was considering some form of compulsion was removed a little later by Mr. Duff Cooper's assurance that the real intention was to secure recruits by making the conditions of service more genuinely attractive. How that was to be done was then under consideration by a special committee, and it is still under consideration, though Sir Thomas Inskip spoke hopeful words at Glasgow a week ago on what he trusted would be the ultimately satisfactory outcome of those deliberations.

Meanwhile recruiting for the Regular Army is seriously in arrears, though for the Navy and the Air Force and their auxiliary

Six Powers Building Battleships

Rearmament In Full Swing

WHAT BRITAIN IS DOING

"The high tide in naval construction has set in strongly. Not since the Great War ended, has such a quantity of new tonnage been authorised."

These are almost the opening words of the publishers' foreword to "Jane's Fighting Ships" for 1936.

The whole 570 pages of the book bear out the truth of this statement. In nearly every case the list of ships which have been added since the last edition is long compared with that of ships deleted.

Moreover, the ships added contain a far larger proportion of large and powerful units than has been the case for very many years. Capital ships, the building of which has been a rarity in recent years, are now being freely ordered by the principal naval Powers.

BATTLESHIPS
Great Britain has ordered two battleships. The United States and Japan are both likely to lay down new capital ships early in 1937. France, in addition to the 28,500-ton Dunkerque, and Stracbourg, has laid down one ship, the Richelieu, of 35,000 tons, and will start work on a sister ship in the New Year.

Italy has two 35,000-ton battleships building, and Germany, in addition to the 26,000-ton Scharnhorst and Gneisenau, has one 35,000-ton battleship in hand, and is expected to start work on a second ship of this size very shortly.

One of the most interesting points about these new capital ships is that they are all believed to be designed for a speed of 30 knots. In view of the fact that they will also be heavily protected both against shell fire and air attack, this high speed requirement emphasises the fact that the battleship and the battle cruiser are blending into a single type.

The measures which have been taken to make good the deficiencies in the British Navy are shown

If Gossip We Must

(BY "PRUDENCE").

There was a strong anti-cyclone revolving round The Gloucester on the opening night of that new Cabaret, and such a lot of "pressure" inside that it was all we could do to secure a table at all, so we did not complain at having to peep round a pillar and dodge a curtain or two in order to see that most brilliant and exciting show.

Hensie Rogutta certainly excels in the art of spectacular contrasts—she made her first appearance in the beautiful crinoline dress, and powder and patches, of a Grande Dame, and then electrified us by ending her turn with a series of perfectly timed hand-springs. A startling climax.

As for Hares and Roberts—their Plastic dance is really superb. Hares (what an odd name for a girl!) is as supple as an eel and as graceful as a wood-nymph, and Roberts is a perfect partner. And can they act! That Apache scene was almost horrifying in its realism! Hares, with her amazing goliwog wig wore a wicked little frock which smacked of the underworld of Paris. Roberts played the part of the brutal Apache with sinister effect. And the gay dance they gave later was a complete contrast and quite delightful.

Another comic touch was provided by the two little Chinese page-boys who kept marching round to the tune we all associate with those old friends, Laurel and Hardy.

QUARRY BAY SCHOOL LOSS

The children of Quarry Bay school were feeling very sad last week at having to say good-bye to their dear Miss Cotton who has gone home to England on retirement, and sailed by the Rampus last Saturday. She was immensely popular with all her young pupils, and simply wonderful at getting up those Xmas theatricals for which Quarry Bay School is famous. Two other people who were very sorry to be going away were Mrs. and Miss Gold who had thoroughly enjoyed their visit to Hong Kong, and "did" the place from Peak to sea-level. I met them one day in Catt Street, where they were picking up all sorts of treasures as souvenirs to take home. Mr. Gold, of course, was here to attend the meteorological conference, and it was bad luck that he was laid up part of the time with neuralgia.

THE PATIENTS

I am glad to see Mrs. A. R. H. Phillips up and about again after her bad attack of malaria, and looking wonderfully well too; but I was sorry to hear that "Bunny" Hallows had been laid up with "flu." I hope, however, that by the time this goes to Press she will be her bright sunny self again. It is good news that little Belinda Stuart-Smith has made such a good recovery after having her tonsils out.

I saw Mrs. Raymond, just back from a jaunt in Manila, and looking splendid.

HELENA MAY TREAT

people are delighted that they are going back to the old original time of 5.30, instead of holding the concerts at night as has been done recently. I always enjoy Mrs. Sanger's beautiful voice, and with Madame Eyelle to charm us at the piano, Mrs. Arnold and her cello, and Mrs. Gibbs and Mr. Gerald Sydney to accompany, it ought to be a lovely afternoon of music.

AIR-MINDEDNESS

(BY "ONLOOKER").

Air-mindedness is definitely on the ascent. At the delightful cocktail party given by Captain and Mrs. Lock and Mr. Curtis at the Peninsula Hotel last Wednesday, there was an aerial film being shown in an adjoining room which was a great attraction. Unfortunately I arrived too late to see the beginning of it, but even the end—where we saw beautiful Imperial Airways craft arriving in the Far East—was inspiring, and most people must have registered the determination to fly home some time.

Amongst the many guests I saw Mrs. Dalzell with her son. She was wearing the most attractive light biscuit dress with a wine red coat over it of said. Mrs. Blanchard was with her husband and Major Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Abbott were all there. Mrs. Sheldon—who is so much missed by her friends on the Peak—was looking very well, and that popular person Mrs. Groseman wore a perfectly tailored suit with great distinction. By the way the A.D.C. are in rehearsal again, and we shall soon be booking seats at The China Fleet Club Theatre for yet another of their fine productions. I found out that "Fay Groseman" was in the cast all right, so up, and be ready all her "fans"!

FOOD ON MODEL PLANES

Mr. and Mrs. Mackinlay have returned from their honeymoon and looked very well at the party, and I noticed Mr. and Mrs. Roberts with Mr. Masson. Mr. Perrin, who has recently returned from home by air, was expatiating on the comfort, interest, and speed of his journey as he watched the film from the doorway.

Mr. and Mrs. Moss, Mr. Erik Nelson and Mr. Smith were there of course, Mrs. Moss in a very fetching cocktail ensemble with becoming long ear-rings. Delectable small chow was carried round on model aeroplanes which delighted everybody. It was just as well there were no small boys present or those machines might have flown right out of the Hotel—caviar and all!

Miss Bell and Miss Betty Pestonji were looking as attractive and as animated as always, and surrounded by a host of admirers. Cocktail parties are the very nicest form of entertainment. Such an easy way of seeing something of so many charming people in a short time. Everybody loved Mrs. W. G. Robertson's party at her home on the Peak; vast numbers seemed to be there, but there was still plenty of room to circulate—an important advantage. It was lovely to see the Keith Valentines back again. She was looking radiant in the most charming brown taffeta dress, and they were both full of cheer as ever.

Mr. and Mrs. John Collis were other returned levites I sighted—the latter in becoming biscuit coloured lace.

CHINESE CUM-MILITARY CUT

Quite the most striking (and incidentally devastatingly becoming) cocktail garb was worn by Mrs. Smith Wright; gleaming white and gold it was, and Chinese cum-military as to cut—an unusual combination, but the effect was too lovely for words. Another ravishing dress was worn by Mrs. (Dr.) Anderson—black velvet with a touch of diamante and with rather Spanish-looking collar, all in keeping. Our hostess looked delightful in blue with a tiny pattern in the material, and her mother, Mrs. Lucy, wore lovely soft grey with great distinction. Her sister, Mrs. Markert was a vision in cherry red. Mrs. Emmert had a beautifully cut dress of that rich dark purple—I forget the proper name for it—and Mrs. Bodington looked charming in something dark with fascinating small spots.

Mrs. Donovan, Mrs. Sanger, Mrs. McAvoy and Mrs. Nixon were all there, complete with husbands, and a great many other nice people too. Altogether it was one of the BEST parties, and we all found it very difficult to tear ourselves away.

ITALIAN PRIEST DETAINED

Yang's Troops Occupy Mission Buildings

Shanghai, Jan. 23.

An Italian priest, Father Cellini of Tall, Shensi, has been detained by Communists near Weinan fifty kilometres eastward of Sianfu, according to a message received at the Italian Embassy; the officials of which are inclined to believe that the priest is unharmed but has only been refused permission to travel in the province.

The message also declared that buildings owned by Italian missionaries at Sianfu have been occupied by Yang Hu-chen's troops, but a few priests are remaining behind unmolested. Reuter.

battleship and building submarines. Siam has ordered a very powerful type of coast defence cruiser mounting 3-inch guns, while Finland, Poland, and the Netherlands, in common with the majority of the navies of the world, are adding submarines to their strength.

CANTON JUNK MISHAP

Stern Cracks Owing To Contraction

Canton, Jan. 24. On the 23rd instant a big passenger junk plying between Canton, Sun Cheong and Chang Sha left Canton with over 300 passengers on board.

Owing to being delayed by the tides, the junk had to be towed by a steam launch. On reaching midstream, in the vicinity of the Tai Fan Wharf, the stern of the passenger junk suddenly cracked, followed by a loud report, and the craft was unable to proceed on its voyage.

The owners of the junk immediately chartered another junk from the Chu Lum Kee Dock, and had all the passengers transferred to it in safety.

After all the passengers had been safely transferred an inspection of the stern of the damaged junk was made, and it was discovered that the mishap was due to the cracking of the woodwork, caused by winter dryness and contraction. (Chinese Evening Press.)

CONSIDERABLE DAMAGE TO CITY BUILDINGS

SIX-INCH SHELLS FALL IN MADRID

Telephone Exchange Strewn With Wreckage

Madrid, January 23. To-day's bombardment was the heaviest since the beginning of the siege eleven weeks ago. Great six-inch shells fell in the centre of the city, considerably damaging the modern steel and concrete commercial buildings. Over sixty shells fell in the working class quarter at Vallecas, southwest of the city, where many small houses were completely destroyed.

Madrid's main boulevard, Granvia, wherein the sixteen-storey telephone exchange is situated, was strewn with a mass of wreckage. The shelling led to a sudden exodus, many people packing a few belongings in bundles and fleeing from the city.—Reuter.

COMBINED ATTACK

Salamanca, Jan. 23. A successful Nationalist attack was carried out on the Madrid front, a squadron of fifteen bombing planes, and fifteen pursuit planes assisting in the infantry advance.

The position of the militia was first considerably damaged by well-aimed bombs after which pursuit planes flying low emptied trenches by devastating machine gun fire.

After the retreat of the Reds had begun, the heavy artillery of the Nationalists succeeded in encircling a part of the Red regiment. While this was in progress, four Red bombers attacked Carabanchel and Getafe.—Transocean News Service.

MEN FOR ARMY & TERRITORIALS

Conservative M.P.'s Proposal

BIG CAMPAIGN

Mr. Thomas Levy, Conservative M.P. for the Eland Division of Yorkshire, addressing the 4th Battalion Duke of Wellington's Regiment at Brighouse recently said the failure of the voluntary system of recruiting to supply the country with the men it needed for the defence services, more particularly the Regular Army and the Territorial Army, was an anxious problem to Ministers, and one that seemed difficult of solution by the methods to which we were accustomed in this country. When it was realised that all over defence requirements would be solved if only 5 per cent of the able-bodied population would give the minimum service, it seemed as if something was wrong with the youth of the country, and that the claims of national security, to say nothing of patriotism, fell on deaf ears.

"I think they do. But not on willfully deaf ears. I think that a great many of the eligible young men of the country do not yet know fully the pressing need of the defence services. I do not for a moment think that the men will not be forthcoming once they realise that they are urgently wanted, and that the conditions and prospects are fair. We should organise a thoroughly national campaign, by public meeting and widely distributed literature, to let the young men know what is wanted, and what the conditions and prospects are. I would have well-advertised meetings and other direct propaganda in every important centre, and conferences of employers, too, in order to bring home to the country at large the needs of the defence services.

"The possibilities of recruiting propaganda have not yet been explored properly, much less exhausted, and I feel sure that if a real national campaign to get the men were started and if employers were approached direct, instead of through the unsatisfactory medium of the general appeal, which is scarcely noticed, the results would be excellent.

"Conscription would be a most grave step in this country. It

VOLUNTEERS FOR SPAIN

American Contingent Disappointed

London, Jan. 23. Eighty American citizens from the United States of America en route to Spain to join the Red forces met with disappointment on Saturday when the American Consul boarded the "Paris" on which they were travelling at Plymouth and stamped on each passport "Invalid for Spain."

This is the first application of the recent order of the United States to their consulates to render American passports invalid for travel in Spain in order to prevent volunteers from leaving the States to serve under the flag of Spain. Officials had been led to suspect the intentions of members of the group because they studied Spain so diligently throughout the trip.—Transocean News Service.

ITALIAN REPLY

Rome, Jan. 23. The Italian reply to the British note regarding the ban on volunteers to Spain will be delivered on Monday. It is understood that Italy will insist on international control and rigid enforcement of non-intervention by all countries, all measures to be applied simultaneously.

The German reply also will be delivered on Monday.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

BRITISH CONSULATE AT MALAGA

Staff To Withdraw To Gibraltar

London, Jan. 23. In view of the situation that has developed at Malaga, where in recent bombardments the British Consulate has suffered considerable damage, the acting British Consul, Mr. Clissold, has been instructed to close the Consulate and withdraw to Gibraltar.

All British subjects in Malaga who desire to leave have been evacuated. About 30 have declined to take advantage of the offers for evacuation and remain in town.—British Wireless.

DUTCH NOTE ON REFUGEES

Geneva, Jan. 23. The Dutch Government handed a note to the Secretary General of the League of Nations on Friday, expressing satisfaction over the fact that the question of the right of asylum for refugees in foreign Legations and Consulates in Madrid had been included in the agenda of the League Council Session. The Government further declares that its representative in Madrid would be prepared to take any step calculated to bring about a satisfactory solution of the refugee problem.—Transocean News Service.

might have far-reaching political consequences. Before we even think of it let us use to the utmost those means of voluntary recruiting which we have failed to employ so far. Strength in defence is an insurance against war; weakness is a liability to it. Those who join the defences to-day are fortifying peace."

TOKYO CABINET PRESSED

Military Powers Band Together

Tokyo, Jan. 23. With the military authorities ranged behind him, the War Minister, Count Terauchi is pressing for dissolution of the Diet. If the Cabinet does not agree, he will resign, which would bring down the Ministry.

The Cabinet decided to resign after a fateful meeting in the afternoon. The Emperor instructed Mr. Hirota to carry on in office as Premier until a successor is appointed.

The dissolution of the Diet has been delayed pending confirmation of the Cabinet's decision at a further meeting to-day. It is understood that the decision may be reversed if political parties are prepared to abandon their hostility towards the Government, but at present there are no signs of their doing so.—Reuter.

MILITARY ACTION SUSPENDED

Peace Moves In Shensi Revolt

Shanghai, Jan. 23. The general military drive by the Nanking Government forces against the Shensi rebels under General Yang Hu-chen, which was due to start yesterday, has again been suspended temporarily.

The reason for the holding up of the projected drive is to enable General Li Chung-kan, the northern peace delegate who arrived in Nanking from Sianfu on Thursday, to complete his mission.

Chinese press reports state that General Yang Hu-chen has agreed to withdraw his troops to north of the Wei River and to establish his headquarters at Sanyuan, about 30 miles north of Sianfu. Well-informed quarters, however, suspect that this is merely a subterfuge.

Although sporadic fighting between the Central Government troops and the rebels occurred early in the week, the situation on the front at present is quiet. The Government continued to concentrate troops in the neighbourhood of Tungkuang.—Reuter.

MR. RUNCIMAN AT WASHINGTON

To Discuss American Neutrality?

Washington, Jan. 23. Mr. Walter Runciman, President of the Board of Trade in Britain, called on Mr. Cordell Hull before proceeding to the White House as the week-end guest of the President.

Congressmen are evincing a lively interest in Mr. Runciman's doings, especially since it is admitted that he would, among other matters, discuss American neutrality with the President. It is believed that Mr. Runciman is likely to find that the neutrality sentiment, though strong, is more tempered with realism than hitherto with less enthusiasm and the proposition that in order to stay out of a war the United States must voluntarily destroy its own export trade.—Reuter.

LEAGUE TALK POSTPONED

Private Discussions In Progress

London, Jan. 23. The League Council Meeting scheduled for this afternoon has been postponed until Monday.

Private negotiations were in progress to-day on two main questions on the agenda on which no agreement had been reached.

Mr. Eden, M. Delbos and M. Sandler, who constitute the Committee appointed to consider the Danzig question, met this morning to discuss the report; and M. Vleynot, French Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and Ruzhdi Aras, Turkish Foreign Minister were engaged in private discussions on the Alexandretta question.—British Wireless.

SANJAK AGREEMENT

The French and Turkish delegations reached agreement, in principle on the Alexandretta dispute. The agreement which has been accepted ad referendum by the Turkish delegation provides that the territory of Sanjak be guaranteed by the League, enjoy complete administrative independence within the framework of Syrian States, and be defended under agreement to be concluded between France and Turkey.—Reuter.

Distressing Air Mishaps

A later message from Fort Bayard states that M. Doret landed in the vicinity of Moncey on the Chinese border during thick fog. It was not yet been ascertained whether the machine was damaged and whether he can continue the flight to Tokyo.—Reuter.

SECOND DISAPPOINTMENT

Earlier messages from Reuter stated that M. Doret passed over Rangoon at 7 a.m. local time and arrived in Hanoi at 12.45 p.m. local time, taking off from there for Shanghai at 2.45 p.m. on Saturday.

In this connection it is interesting to recall that this is the second recent accident to French airmen attempting the flight to Tokyo. M. Japy, who took off from Hong Kong under most hazardous conditions on the last lap of his attempt on the record, being forced down on one of the Japanese islands off Formosa.

SURREY DISASTER

London, Jan. 23. A newspaper aeroplane piloted by Captain G. S. Jones-Evans, former pilot in China, which left Croydon at dawn yesterday for France, was found wrecked late last night at Tilsey Hill, Surrey. Captain Jones-Evans and the wireless operator, Mr. James Walker, were both dead in the mass of wreckage. The machine had evidently crashed owing to engine trouble.—Reuter.

Shanghai, Jan. 23. Commissioned by the Ministry of Railways to investigate the fire on the Canton-Kowloon train on January 18, Mr. Kenneth Cantile, consulting expert to the Chinese Railways, left for Hong Kong this morning on board the Messageries Maritimes liner, Jean Laborde.—Reuter.

NO GROUND FOR COMPLAINT

Soviet Boarding Of Japanese Ships

Moscow, Jan. 24. No satisfaction was vouchsafed Mr. Shigemitsu when he called at the Foreign office to protest against the Soviet frontier authorities visiting the Japanese ships Siberia Maru and Kongosan Maru at Vladivostok on January 19.

An official announcement says that M. Kozlovski, of the Oriental Department, told Mr. Shigemitsu that Japan was unjustified in complaining seeing that their authorities stopped Soviet vessels at a Japanese port and took unreasonable and annoying discriminatory measures.

Moreover, the material discovered on the Siberia Maru tended to prove the captain to be guilty of illegal acts.—Reuter.

SUPPLY OF HUMAN SKELETONS

Soviet Russia Holds Monopoly

Warsaw, Jan. 23. Six thousand human skeletons at the price of $100 to $200 each were exported from Soviet Russia to the United States of America during 1936, states "Kraakauer Kurier Illustrirany."

These relics—required for scientific purposes—came chiefly from Soviet Russian prisons and the island of Sakhalin, the place of banishment for political prisoners and are prepared in a special institute in Leningrad, states the Cracow paper.

Recently, however, adds the same source, scientific institutes in the United States were becoming uneasy at intimations that prices will have to be raised, this news being very disconcerting since skeletons are indispensable for certain research work and Soviet Russia has virtually the world's monopoly for the supply of human skeletons.—Transocean News Service.

M.C.C. TOURISTS AT ADELAIDE

Adelaide, Jan. 23. The M.C.C. carried their score of 238 for six wickets to 301 at the close of the second day's play in their match against South Australia.

Allen scored 60, including six boundaries, in a sound display. Cotton, the fast bowler, took three wickets for 76 while Grimmett with lengthy lightning and spinning took four for 77 and Ward two for 70.

South Australia batted after lunch, scoring 194 for 4. Ryan made 71, with his driving to the off and cutting. Bradman, who scored 38, appeared to have strained his left thigh. He was limping and never settled down.

It was revealed that Fishlock had fractured the bone of his right hand in the previous day's play and is unlikely to play during the remainder of the tour.—Reuter.

UNITED STATES FLOODS

Rescue Activity

New York, Jan. 23. Aeroplanes, trains, boats and lorries are rushing rescue equipment, food and clothing to the flood-stricken areas bordering the Ohio and Mississippi rivers, where snow and sleet and the bitter cold weather are adding to the general distress.

The Ohio River at Cincinnati has now reached the record height of 72 feet 6 inches, over twenty feet above the flood stage, and experts predict that it will take a week before the flood waters recede to normal.

The homeless now number 190,000 and the Red Cross has launched a relief fund, to which Washington has allotted the sum of $2,000,000.

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST AIR RAID

Detector Signs For Gas

HOW TO USE MASK

Every responsible person in the land is to be shown, in his own house, how to use a gas mask. The air raids precautions committee of the Home Office have come to the conclusion that it is useless to expect members of the public voluntarily to visit depots to learn how to adjust and wear a mask.

Therefore, depot staffs will visit every house and give a demonstration.

Visits will begin as soon as the depots have been set up.

Plans for distributing 30,000,000 respirators are now almost complete. The Blackburn factory is in production and will shortly send out 500,000 masks a week.

These will be sent first to 12 main depots, placed at strategic points. From these they will be distributed to thousands of sub-depots, which will serve the public.

The main depots will "service" each year 10 per cent of the masks to ensure that all remain in good conditions.

TELL-TALE SIGNS
An elaborate scheme for gas detectors in every street is also being completed.

Detectors will consist of pieces of wood dressed with a yellow paint.

This will turn red when it comes into contact with the liquid from which mustard gas and Lewisite (a similar gas) vaporises.

These gases are either sprayed by raiding aeroplanes or are contained, under pressure, in bombs and cover a wide area when the bombs burst.

Particular attention is being given to mustard and Lewisite gas because it soaks into the ground or woodwork and remains active for a long time.

It gives off dangerous gas when heated by the sun.

Physical contact with it means a bad burn: the gas which vaporises from it can seriously damage the lungs.

RAS DESTA IN FLIGHT

Rome, Jan. 22. Ras Desta, one of the few Ethiopian chiefs still in arms against the Italian invaders, is now fleeing towards Kenya following his defeat by the troops of Marshal Graziani, according to a message from Addis Ababa.

Marshal Graziani is reported to have sent four columns in pursuit of the defeated chief, whose forces were further demoralised by machine-gunning from the air. Five minor Abyssinian chiefs were captured in the operations, as well as a large quantity of arms and munitions.

Libyan troops are playing a prominent part in the operations.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR PERRY

Philadelphia, Jan. 23. Fred Perry again beat Ellsworth Vines by three sets to one, the scores being 6-3, 9-7, 1-6, 6-3. The English professional was in great form and played a most brilliant game in the second and fourth sets.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

TOKYO EXPLOSION

Tokyo, Jan. 23. Five were killed and three injured when a military powder magazine exploded at 8.20 this morning in O'ku, a north-western suburb of Tokyo.—Reuter.

ACCUMULATING A STOCK

The detectors will provide a permanent safeguard, for the warning red will always indicate its presence. Members of the gas detector squads now being formed throughout the country will wear badges dressed with the paint, which will assist them to confirm the presence of the liquid.

A stock of the paint is now being accumulated by the Government.

Arrangements are being made to send consignments to all the local authorities, who will be asked to make themselves responsible before the erection of the detector signs.

INDIAN R.C. MAINTAIN CLEAN RECORD Champions Bow To H.K.C.C. On Club Ground

SATURDAY'S CRICKET RESULTS

The Indian Recreation Club improved their chances of winning the First Division Cricket Championship when on Saturday, after being dismissed for 85 runs in their League encounter with the Civil Service Cricket Club, they skilfully the opposition out for 63 runs, thanks to a fine bowling performance by M. A. Arculli who returned the very good figures of 6 for 17.

On the Hong Kong Cricket Club ground, the Home team dashed what hopes the K.C.C. (last season's champions) had of bringing off the "double" when they won by the convincing margin of nine wickets. In the Junior Division, the Kowloon Cricket Club collected a further three points at the expense of the H.K.C.C., and as things stand the chances are that they will win the shield for 1936-37.

CHINESE TEAM WIN GOVERNOR'S CUP MATCH

Game Packed With Thrills LEE WAI TONG OUTSTANDING PLAYER

(BY BEN MADIGAN)

A large and enthusiastic crowd turned up at Caroline Hill yesterday to witness the first round of the Governor's Cup series between Hong Kong Chinese Amateur Athletic Federation and the Hong Kong Football Association. This game was more or less in the nature of an Interport Trial and the large crowd fully enjoyed a game that was packed with thrills.

For the winners, Lee Wai-tong, Tam Kwan-kon and Cheong Moon-wing excelled. For the losers Gosano and Stevens shone. Knox had a good day his goals being capital efforts.

The opening exchanges were fairly even, each side attacking in turn. Bickford forced a corner on the left his resultant kick being cleared by Wong Ping. At the other end offside spoiled a promising Chinese move, when Yeung Shui-yick was going right through. Stevens set his forwards in motion with a lustrous clearance and Strangely had a grand drive tipped over by Tam Kwan-kon.

STEVEN'S SHINES

Stevens was outstanding in defence for the European XI his clean kicking being a feature. During one of their raids North gathered a loose ball on the right, and lobbed over a high shot which completely baffled Tam Kwan-kon for the European side's first goal.

On resuming Lee Wai-tong forced a corner which was cleared by Gosano, who was giving a fine exhibition at right back. Lee Wai-tong was brought down rather robustly in the penalty area but the referee waved play to continue. Almost immediately Lee Wai-tong broke through and left Rowlands helpless with a hard drive.

LEE WAI-TONG

The Chinese XI were enjoying a fair share of the play, Stevens' brilliant headwork checking many of their constant attacks. The European side now took up the running, Erwin being prominent on the right with some perfect crosses. Tam Kwan-kon brought off a spectacular save from Bickford, and almost immediately was called into action again to deal with a hard drive from Knox, 30 yards out. Yeung Shui-yick was proving very dangerous on the Chinese right wing and Lee Tin-sang headed one of his crosses just over. Tam Kwan-kon now came into the picture with spectacular saves from Wilson and Knox—the latter being very unfortunate in his shooting.

SECOND HALF

The first incident of note on resuming was a capital save by Rowlands from a great drive by Lee Wai-tong. During a European raid Tam Kwan-kon nipped in and cleared from Wilson who was in a very favourable position. Yeung Shui-yick next had a run down the right but a fine tackle by Stevens checked his progress. Yeung Shui-yick gathered on the right and crossed perfectly for Lee Tin-sang to head past Rowlands. A perfect goal.

CHINESE ONSLAUGHT

Right from the restart the Chinese team exerted pressure, and the redoubtable Lee Wai-tong received a rather high pass from Fung King-cheong to score with a great first time drive. The Chinese XI attacked persistently and up to the finish, Lee Wai-tong and Yeung Shui-yick mingled narrowly in turn, in a second half, packed with thrills. During a European XI breakaway, Knox notched an unexpected goal, much against the run of play. This goal acted as a tonic to the European side who almost scored again when Tam Kwan-kon just scraped away a drive from Knox. Eventually Lee Wai-tong gave Yeung Shui-yick a clever pass, the latter leaving Rowlands helpless from close in.

The Chinese side deserved their victory, their opponents failing to pieces during the latter period of the second half.

RIFLES DEFEAT NAVY EASILY

In a game that was packed with thrills and entertainment, the Rifles defeated the Navy by 4 goals to 1 in their Senior Division encounter at Chatham Road on Saturday.

The Rifles had the better of the game throughout, but the Navy side put up a never-shackening resistance. The Navy were more or less tied down in their own area throughout, but they were sound in defence, Harris and Shurey playing tirelessly until the end. Anderson played well in the forward line, supported well on occasions by Hayden, but he could do little against the Rifles' bulwarks.

The Rifles maintained a steady pressure throughout the game and their forwards provided some particularly good combination. Flickering and Stevens gave a sound obstructive exhibition while, in the intermediate line, Miller's passing was an outstanding feature.

The Navy missed the opportunity of getting an early goal when three of their forwards fumbled the ball but they made up for this by a good goal soon afterwards. Wormald centering nicely for Hayden to head a good goal.

The Navy defence soon gave away under the constant pressure of the Rifles' attacks. It was not long before Campbell sent up a good pass to Moore which the latter netted with a first timer. Another breakaway resulted in the Rifles taking the lead after Miller struck the crossbar with a glorious shot, Moore scoring easily from the rebound.

Moore obtained his "hat-trick" when Irwin made a clever run down the right wing and centred a difficult shot from the touchline. Just before the interval, Ferguson dashed in to snap up a pass from Irwin and succeeded in scoring the fourth goal for the winners.

In spite of the fact that the Rifles had the wind after resumption of play in the second half, they did everything, but score again.

Rifles: — Connor; Flickering, Stevens; McGonigle, Campbell, Miller; Irwin, Killen, Moore, Doherty and Ferguson.

Navy: — Ritchie; Passent, Harris; Roberts, Nicholls, Shurey; Bliman, Haydon, Brown, Anderson and Wormald.

CLUB LOSES TO EASTERN

Despite a fevered display on the part of their players, who worked like Trojans throughout the game, the Club finished the losers in their Senior Division encounter with Eastern at Causeway Bay on Saturday by the score of two goals to one. The Club started the game with several reserve players and after five minutes' play, lost one of their players through an injury which kept him out of the team for the remainder of the match.

Ellott was rather disappointing in the leader position, this player making several openings engineered for him by E. Strangely. His hesitancy in shooting enabled the Eastern defenders to nip in and clear.

The Club's chance of an early demoraliser went astray five minutes after the commencement of the game when they were awarded a penalty for a foul against Moore, but Ellott "kicked" the ball from the spot. A few minutes later Moore was injured and this kept him out of the game entirely.

Before the first half ended, the Club was given another opportunity to score when they were awarded a second "spot kick". Forrow made no mistake with his shot and converted in excellent style.

With the Eastern pressing hard upon their goalmouth in the second session of the game, the Club was sorely pressed. Rodger made many remarkable saves but he could not prevent Cheung Shui-hong crash in a first-time shot from a bouncing pass, which rebounded from the post onto the head of Chen Cheung-yin and into the net, to equalise for the Chinese. Just before the final whistle went Cheung Shui-hong drew Rodger from his goal and tapped the ball past him for the winning goal.

Eastern: — Tain Hang; Tsan Kam-wing, Lai Ting-chol; Tsang Cheung-wa, Cheng Kwok-chol, Ng Ying-ka; Chan Bing-to, Cheung Sui-hong, Sung Ling-sing, Chen Cheung-yin and How Sing-to.

Club: — Rodger; Nicholls and Strangely; Kemp, Forrow and Millington; Purvis, Moore, Elliott, Strangely and Bickford.

RECREIO'S SPLENDID PERFORMANCE

A clear-cut victory, which was fully deserved, was recorded by Club Recreio against the St. Joseph's in their soccer encounter which took place at King's Park on Saturday when the Recreio eleven put up their best performance of the season to win by two clear goals. This game, beside being a Senior Division match, also counted for the re-play of the Senior Shield between these two teams, and by their victory Recreio has entered the second round of the Senior Shield competition.

Recreio fielded a team which included the Gosano brothers in the forward line, this arrangement completely upsetting their opponent's defence who had a harrowing time. Had Recreio been favoured with a little more luck, they would have secured a much more handsome victory.

A. V. Gosano, at centre-forward, displayed the same versatility and cunning that marked his play of former days and his persistent feeding of Campos, at right-wing, was one of the main factors of Recreio's success. B. Gosano was always on the mark to support his brother. Beltrao's roving tactics in the

UNITED HOCKEY TOURNAMENT

No Entrance Fees This Year

According to Sub-Inspector Tyler, the United Services Hockey Tournament will in future be known as the United Hockey Tournament, the word "Services" having apparently not met with the approval of the Area Sports Board.

The above decision was the result of a recent meeting held by the Committee members, Captain L. Gwyder-Jones being in the chair.

According to Inspector Tyler it has been found possible to carry on without entrance fees and for this season clubs competing need not make any financial contribution. It has been ascertained from Mr. F. Kemp, the Secretary of the Hong Kong Hockey Association, that there is no objection whatsoever from the Association regarding the running of this Tournament and that any club that wishes to do so is free to take part in it.

the left eye. Arsenal added only one more goal in the first half, when Drake took a through pass from Crayston on the turn between the full-backs and beat Jones at close range.

Bolton's rearranged defence, with Tennant left back, Goslin right back, Hurst centre half, and G. T. Taylor right half, struggled gallantly against overwhelming odds in the second half. When Westwood had gone there were only three Bolton forwards, and they had perforce to try to get through by dribbling, as there was rarely a friend there for a pass; yet in this period Bolton made twice as many as and much better attacks than before the interval, only a fine save by Boulton preventing Milsom from scoring. The defence grew more and more leg weary through overwork, and Drake (2) and Milne added goals in spite of Jones's excellent goal-keeping.

The Proven STOMACH REMEDY for Bad Cases

Amazing evidence of the remarkable speed with which indigestion and stomach pains can be stopped has been revealed by medical experiments and X-ray photographs of actual cases. These prove the ingredients of "Bisurated" Magnesia to be the quickest-acting and most effective known to medical science. Within 5 minutes a teaspoonful of "Bisurated" Magnesia in a little water produces complete relief in cases where numerous other remedies had failed entirely.

Its Action Explained—
Simply take a teaspoonful of the powder in a little water. The moment this soothing draught reaches the tortured stomach it begins to soothe the sour, fermenting undigested food. The contents of the stomach become as bland and soothing as milk to the sensitive stomach lining. The pain quickly lessens and presently disappears. By following up the treatment after each meal, your harassed stomach will soon lose its tenderness and grow strong, until you can eat whatever you like and enjoy every meal, without fear of wind and pain.

A NOTED
ENGLISH DOCTOR
SAYS:

"I find that 'Bisurated' Magnesia taken after my meals is the only thing that keeps me free from pain and discomfort, and I take it regularly. I often prescribe it for my patients, and have had very good results."

H.C. — M.A., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P.
ANOTHER DOCTOR SAYS:
"'Bisurated' Magnesia gives excellent results and is the ideal remedy for stomach pains and acidity. It is particularly recommended for Dyspepsia, Gastritis, Stomach Pain, Flatulence, and even Stomach Ulcers."

Bolton Trounced By Arsenal On Own Ground

Two Casualties In 50 Minutes

Bolton Wanderers had a most unhappy afternoon on their own ground. They were defeated 5-0 by Arsenal, and lost Finney with an injured left eye after twenty-six minutes and Westwood with a twisted right knee after fifty minutes; the one compensation was a crowd of 43,000.

Bolton gave as poor an exhibition of football craft as they are likely to do all season, but they are to be applauded for playing the game right to the end, whereas the glory of Arsenal's fine football and crushing victory was dimmed by a whole series of fouls in the second half against a side consisting of only nine men; several Arsenal men were spoken to by the referee, and his decisions obviously displeased them. Greatness has duties as well as rewards in football as in other things, and the chief of these is strict adherence to the rules.

Arsenal outclassed their opponents everywhere except in goal and at inside forward, and always there seemed to be three or four red Arsenal shirts to every white Bolton one. The Bolton clearances went as though inevitably to Crayston, Copping, Male, or sidey, and back would come an attack composed of beautiful short or through passes by James and Bastin, swinging centres by Kirchen and Milne, and fierce rushes by Drake.

Ball Control

It was astonishing how swiftly the Arsenal men brought the ball under control on the heavy and slippery turf, and how quickly they ran in both defence and attack. Arsenal's men positioned themselves so that when the ball came they were unmarked or went to fetch it for themselves—Copping twice on the extreme forward right wing; Bolton's waited for the ball to come and in the first half it hardly ever came. The one fault of the winners was comparative weakness in finishing; they did nine-tenths of the play, and with a little more accuracy in front of goal and against a lesser goalkeeper than Jones they might have won, by a dozen goals. Jones, Goslin, and Tennant worked gallantly in defence for Bolton and Westwood and Eastham were both clever and progressive when they had the ball.

In the first five minutes Arsenal forced four corners. James made two shots, and Drake hit the cross-bar and won a corner with his second shot off an unwitting saviour of the goal. Milsom and Howe earned one corner by clever combination which tested Male, but that was a rare sortie, and had Drake gone forward and shot instead of passing out to and behind Kirchen he might easily have scored. A perfect through pass by Bastin put Kirchen away, but Jones turned a fierce drive round the post, and an equally good pass out to Milne by James was wasted through hesitation.

Finney Blinded

After twenty-five minutes, however, Finney missed his kick completely and let Drake through. Jones charged forth and made Drake pass sideways to Kirchen; the latter's shot was kept out accidentally by a Bolton heel, but Drake rammed the rebound home. Finney left the field at this point, having been 'mysteriously blinded' (one trusts only temporarily) in

HARLAND & WOLFF

Output For 1936 And New Orders

During the year 1936 Harland and Wolff, Limited, launched 106,402 tons of shipping and constructed 89,030 h.p. of marine propelling machinery. The figures do not include land and rail traction work.

The year has been one of much activity in all departments (says a statement issued by the company), and many vessels of outstanding characteristics have been built. As is customary, the output returns published include vessels launched only, but the list of ships completed during the year is a comprehensive one, and includes fast passenger and mail liners, Empire food ships, colliers for the Australian coast, tankers for short sea routes, and ocean tankers, a cruiser for the British Admiralty, and a Diesel electric tug tender and fire float.

In the list of vessels of over 10,000 tons gross classed by Lloyd's
Register during the year 1935-6, as shown in the report of the society's operations, the Union-Castle liners Athlone Castle and the Stirling Castle, built by Harland and Wolff, occupy second and third places respectively. The Sydney Star and the Empire Star, of the Blue Star Line, are also listed in Lloyd's "Vessels of Large Size," and here, too, the Kanbisha, which was built for the coastwise service of McIlwraith, McEacharn, Limited.

DIESEL VESSEL

Incidentally the Govan yard has under construction another Diesel-propelled vessel for the Australian coastal refrigerated cargo service of the North Coast Steam Naviga-

THE SHARE MARKET

Harriman's Weekly Review

Saturday, Jan. 23.

Messrs. G. A. Harriman & Co.'s weekly share report and market review issued at noon to-day states:—

"Business continues brisk in mining shares, but local descriptions are rather off colour, for there is no doubt the greater speculative possibilities of gold shares draws operators to the Manila market leaving our local shares neglected and inclined to sag, from neglect."

There has been a moderate volume of business transacted in utility shares, China Lights being favoured up to $13.70 and the New shares dealt in at $10.35. Sales of Hong Kong Electric were negotiated at $56 and $55.4 closing.
Star Ferries offer at $93 cum, on publication of the preliminary annual figures, which disclose the final dividend to be $3, making $5 for the year (against $5.50 for 1935). Telephones (old) eased to $28.75 sales the "New" to $10.50.
Trams close in better enquiry,
after earlier weakness, at $12.60
buyers.

Hotels have suffered their usual (prior to Settlement) decline with sales down to $5.50, at which rate there are now buyers.
Weak holders, the aftermath of last year's overbought position keep this stock from responding to the much improved trade in the Colony's hotel business.
Realties are a neglected stock around $4.50 nominal. Lands have again come in for enquiry, and after sales at $34 can be taken at $34. Humphreys have appreciated to $9.75. Docks have improved to $14.65, and should go higher.
Cements remain idle, either side of $11. Construction (new) can be taken at 45 cts. Providents (old) were depressed to $1.45, but close at $1.60 buyers $1.65 sellers and Wharfs improved to $1.10.

Banks have kept fully steady and many shares have been taken from $18.70 to $17.70 cum dividend.
Unions continue to advance, and closing transactions were made at $625. Hong Kong Fire came to business at $301 and Cantsans at $307. Raubs are better, on the slightly increased output, and are again over $13 bid.

Philippine Mining shares. East
Mindanao have proved the popular favourite and large numbers have been taken up to 73 cts. with closing buyers at 71 cts. Demonstrations improved to $1.60, and are worth buying on any decline.
Gumaos-Gold have dropped back to 60 cts, the heavy buying of the previous week based chiefly on expectations having been overdone.
Coco Grove have rather disappointed the optimists, in shedding 4 cts. to $1.44. Consolidated Mines have been freely dealt in around 7 cents, and Ipos are enquired for at 52 cents. Big Wedge appear to have lost a lot of their former popularity and dealing locally is difficult in this share. Small sales were made at 65 cts. San Mauricio are higher at $5, but United Paracale eased to $2.30.

Closing comment:—Hong Kong
Market quiet Manila, very steady.

tion Company, and which is the first motor-ship constructed in this country for the company; and at this yard also the new passenger motor vessel for the Western Australian Government will be built.

Other important contracts in hand include the large passenger and mail liner for the South African service of the Union-Castle Line, and two fruit ships for this company somewhat larger than the Roslin Castle. Three large cargo liners have been ordered by Messrs. Lamport and Holt, and also building for the Donaldson Line and the Pacific Coast service of the Royal Mail Lines; also motor passenger vessels for the Liverpool-Dublin service of the British and Irish Steam Packet Company.

The machinery for the extensive re-engineering programme of the Union-Castle Company is also under way, and the five ships to be reconditioned are expected at regular intervals at Belfast during 1937 and 1938.

Warship work is occupying a position of increasing importance in Belfast, and a cruiser bearing the name of the city was awarded to Harland and Wolff during the year by the British Admiralty.

NEW P. & O. LINERS

Features Of The Design

The new liners Stratheden and Strathallan, under construction for the P. & O. Company by Vickers-Armstrongs, Limited, at Barrow-in-Furness, are to be similar in design to the Stratmore, but certain new features have been introduced with a view to adding further to the comfort of passengers.

The principal alteration is that the first-class swimming bath has been taken up a deck higher to the promenade deck. This change will give more deck space to first-class passengers, and the rearrangement has enabled six more bathroom cabins to be added to the first-class accommodation and rather more space is available on "C" deck for the tourist promenade. The tourist dancing space will also be considerably improved, as the area taken by the swimming bath tank now becomes available on "D" deck for dancing and is an open space right across the ship. The tourist accommodation on "H" deck, which is the lowest passenger deck, has been considerably reduced, so that practically all the tourist passengers are now berthed on the deck above—"G" deck.

Both ships will have a single funnel like the Strathmore, but theirs will be 9ft. higher than hers, a difference which may not easily be detected unless the Strathmore and one of the others are lying close together. The appearance, it is believed, will be improved by the greater height.

GIVE UP OR KILL

Moscow, Jan. 23.
Karl Radek, in the course of evidence, at the mass trial, declared:
"We decided either to give up or kill enough to bring about a coup."

PACKED COURT

Moscow, Jan. 23.
The second so-called Trotsky trial began to-day before the Supreme Military Court, the accused including the former Ambassador in London and Finance Commissar Sokolnikoff, former Vice-Commissar for Heavy Industry, Platakoff, and fourteen other Russians.

The trial began at 10 a.m., when the accused were led into the packed court between members of the Soviet secret police with fixed bayonets. The audience included numerous members of the government and civil groups of foreign diplomats, among them the Ambassadors of America and France, and a considerable number of foreign journalists.

GUILTY OF HIGH TREASON

The indictment declared the seventeen men to be guilty of high treason and of giving planned assistance against Stalin, Molotov and other prominent members of the government. They were, moreover, accused of having formed an illegal "parallel central organisation" in conjunction with the Sinoviet-Kameneff group, which had already been sentenced.

The purpose of this organisation was to carry out terroristic sabotage acts in Russian industry as well as espionage for foreign powers. An indictment like that pronounced upon the former Trotskyist group declares that Germany was principally in this action, and that the accused negotiated through Trotsky with leading Germans for cession of sections of the Russian borderland and assignment of commercial concessions in return for German assistance in a campaign to seize power in Russian capitalistic conditions.

The indictment demands the death penalty for all seventeen accused.

Each accused admitted his guilt rather than be questioned by the main judge, only three having obtained defence counsel.

PRINCIPAL ACCUSED

The principal accused, Platakoff, was cross-examined first. He was the special confidante of Lenin and even mentioned as follower and leader of the party. In answer to the questions he described the origin of "parallel central organisation," declaring he had conferred often with Trotsky's son, Sedov, who gave him directions for beginning the Trotsky movement and prevailed upon him to accept money from two German firms in return for favouritism in placing of Soviet orders.

Platakoff also declared that he received a letter from Trotsky in 1931 and that their principal activities were carried on in the Ukraine.

MYSTERY MAN'S GRAVE

Burglars In Search Of Jewels

Paris, Jan. 23.
Regarding the attempted burglary of the vault in which the recently deceased "mumious king," Sir Basil Zaharoff, was buried, it is announced that the burglars did not obtain any jewels or objects of value since, contrary to the numerous rumours to the effect that Zaharoff's wife, Princess of Villa Franca, buried all her jewels in an oak casket, the vault contained nothing of value.

Evidence points to the fact that the burglars also intended opening three other caskets in the vault but that they were disturbed and were forced to flee.

The police have not been able to obtain definite clues as to the whereabouts of the identity of the perpetrators of the crime.

Reviving The Paper Industry

Ministry sent Mr. Chang Yung-hui, a paper expert to north and west Fukien to make an investigation of the present paper industry there. After having visited Shashien, Yungnan and Nanping in north Fukien and Lieuchen in west Fukien, all paper-producing centres, and having made a thorough study of the industry, he is drafting a detailed report to be submitted to the Ministry and the Fukien Provincial Government.

The paper industry was formerly the most booming trade in north and west Fukien. In the early years of the Chinese Republic the annual output of paper amounted to about 400,000 piculs, being valued at approximately $10,000,000.

The present plan of establishing a big paper mill, rivaling the one now being constructed in Wenchang, Chekiang, aims at reviving the trade by the introduction of modern scientific methods of paper-making. Better transportation and distribution facilities will also be provided.

Meanwhile, it is understood steps will be taken to improve the existing paper mills in Shashien, Liencheng, Nanping and Changting.

ARMED ROBBERY SUSPECTS

Weapons Found In Police Raid

A man named Lo-Yan-ting was arrested on Friday in connection with the daring armed robbery of last Tuesday evening when a small sum of money and jewellery amounting to 5,000 were taken by a gang of men who robbed the Chung Wo goldsmith shop at Shanghai Street, Kowloon.

Inspector Elston headed the raiding party at Kowloon City which caught Lo in its net. Lo was brought before the magistrate at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday and was remanded for further enquiries. The authorities learned from him the whereabouts of two pistols and a revolver which were found in the vicinity of Diamond Hill.

Later, another arrest was made in connection with the same robbery when Chang Hop, 20, was found on the Tai Po Road with two fully loaded revolvers in his possession. He was arrested on Saturday about 9 p.m. and will be brought before the Kowloon Magistracy this morning.

Interport Football

Those who have followed form closely this season will agree that the "A" team looks very much the final one that will be chosen for the match against Shanghai, with the exception of the two wings, Irwin and D. Knox. The Kowloon player is being given a trial on the left-wing berth following the failure of Blackford (Club) in yesterday's match, but if Blackford recovers his form he will probably be chosen.

Rowlands has no equal as a goalkeeper in the Colony, while the Li-Gosano combination, at full back, should prove a thorn in the side of any forward line. Lee Wai-tong we all know as the ideal leader, for in addition to being a sharp shooter himself, he is a very dangerous man in that he invariably passes the ball to one of his least marked forwards for the "finishing touch."

Fung King-cheong works with so good an understanding with Lee that it would be ruinous to separate them and although the final selections will not be made for at least another week, the chances for the "A" team will, with one or two exceptions, be given their caps.

INSPECTION OF HIGHWAYS

Kwangtung Official Makes Tour

Canton, Jan. 24.
Mr. Lau Wai-chi of the Kwangtung Reconstruction Department, who has decided to make an inspection of all the highways of the Province, left Canton yesterday for a tour of the eastern highways connecting Canton with Wai-chow City.

Mr. Lau was accompanied by Mr. Chan Kwok-ki and other members of the Department.

Last night Mr. Lau stayed at Lo Fou Sahn, and will continue the inspection to-day. He expects to reach Swatow to-morrow, and return to Canton on the 27th instant.
